PMP® Exam Preparation Course

The Project Management Institute's Project Management Professional (PMP)® Certification – your key to a successful future!

Abstract

The PMP® credential is a globally recognised, project management industry certification. The focus of the course is to maximize candidate chances of successfully obtaining their PMP® Certification.

Candidates applying for the PMP® need to demonstrate a minimum level of experience leading or directing project tasks, show proof of having completed at least 35 hours of suitable project management education, agree to abide by a professional code of conduct before sitting and passing the PMP® Exam.

This course meets the 35 hours of project management education required by PMI® to sit the PMP® exam.

The course is based on the Project Management Institute A Guide to the Project Management Body of Knowledge, (PMBOK® Guide) – Fourth Edition, Project Management Institute, Inc., 2008

Who should attend

Senior Project Managers and project practitioners looking to obtain their PMP® credential

Syllabus

In progressing through the course you will examine in each of the modules:

- Rationale behind questions
- Useful mindsets to engage
